

Black people can't drink in the same tap as white people

They can't use the same waiting room and sit at the same seat

They mustn't go to school

They don't have the right to get married with a white person

White and black people can't eat together and they can't do many other things