

Norman Rockwell

- Born the 3rd february 1894 in New York of Jarvis Waring Rockwell and Anne Mary Hill
- Died the 8th November 1978 in Stockbridge
- A naturalist and realistic painter
- Draw many coverage of magazine

He will paint a lot of famous painting like The Problem We All Live With, Freedom from Want or Rosie the Riveter... The problem we all live with is a painting about racism. The little girl of the painting, Ruby, really exist. She is the first american girl to go in school and at this troubled period, she need guardians, the federal marchers.

