

THE GOLDEN AGREEMENT

Written by Gavin Rasyid Narajati

THE GOLDEN AGREEMENT

Once upon a time, there was a young lazy boy who lived in a peaceful village near the forest. Because of his laziness, he did not want to go to work. That is why he had a small woody house and few of old things. His parents left him because they died.

However he got extremely angry, when the other villagers looked down on him. One day, when he could not take the bullies anymore, he ran away to the forest. He felt so upset and shouted to the sky about his problem. Hearing that, the King of Alien in the forest with the green face like vegetables came to the boy and offered him an interesting agreement.

THE GOLDEN AGREEMENT

The Alien promised to give him a great power that can turn anything into a gold. Then the boy touched it. The boy then actually had the power to turn everything into gold. He had hundreds of friends as he became rich by selling the gold.

One day, he played chase-and-tag. The boy touched his friend accidentally and his friend became gold! Everyone screamed in shock and their bodies were frozen with fear!!! After that, they run away like a hunted deer and left the boy alone.

THE GOLDEN AGREEMENT

Feeling so lonely, the boy came back to the forest and shouted to the sky once again. He screamed, “Alien come back down here!”. The alien heard and came down to the forest to meet the boy. The boy asked the Alien to take away his power. But the Alien did not want to take away the power as it was the boy's choice to have such power.

At the end, the boy regretted his decision to have the power from the Alien. So now, he had to live alone with that power and touch everything to become gold. He was rich but his life is gloomy.