CORRIGé

BONFIRE NIGHT OR GUY FAWKES' DAY : A DATE TO REMEMBER !

1. Cut the pictures. Then, read the story and stick the correct picture for each text :

The story	The illustrations
1. It is November 5th 1605. This is James I. He is the king of England. He is at the Houses of Parliament. Can you see his crown ?
2. This is Guy Fawkes. He doesn't like the king because of religion. He has 36 barrels of gunpowder. He wants to blow up the Houses of Parliament and kill the king.
3. Here are the king's soldiers. They have swords and armours. They see Guy Fawkes and say : « Stop in the name of the king ! ». Fawkes is arrested and executed.
4. Now, it's November 5th 2026. People in England make bonfires and there are fireworks in the night sky.
5. Children make a big puppet called a « guy ». They use old clothes. They put the guy on a bonfire. Can you see his old hat ?
6. People watch the fireworks and eat toffee apples and baked potatoes. They are happy Guy Fawkes didn't kill the King.
