Hello! My name is Jacky Allen. I am 11 years old. I live in Halifax in CANADA.

I wake up at 7:00 a.m. and I get ready for school. For breakfast I have cereal, eggs, and sausage. Then I walk to school with my friends. We start school at 9:00 a.m. with creative writing, art, gym or French. At 10:30 a.m., it is time for recess: we play games or just talk. We have a free reading time at 10:45: I like historical books and mysteries. At 12:00 p.m., I go back to my house and I have lunch: grilled cheese sandwiches are my favorites! Before going back to class, I practice violin. I go back to class at 1:00 p.m.: we work on our projects. School is over at 3:00 p.m.. I go home and I check my e-mail. Then I do my homework. At 5:00 p.m. I watch TV for an hour. We have supper at 6:00 p.m.: we have chicken or pasta. After that, I have Ringette practice: It is similar to hockey. I go to bed at around 8:30 p.m.. Good night!

Hello! My name is Brid Cannon. I am 11 years old. I live in Duntlewey in IRELAND.

I get up at 8:20 a.m. and I have cereal and toast for breakfast. Then I wash and put my uniform on. I take the bus to school. At 9:30 a.m., my friends and I talk with our Math teacher about the news. All our lessons are in Gaelic. At 9:45 a.m., we do math and correct our homework. We have a break and a snack at 11:00 a.m.: we eat sandwiches, fruit or yogurts. After lunch, at around 1:30 p.m., we have lessons in history, English, writing and reading. School ends at 3:00 p.m. and I take the bus home. We eat dinner when my brother and sister come home. We eat fish, potatoes or spaghetti Bolognese (it's my favorite food). At 4:30 p.m., after dinner, I practice Gaelic football. I do my homework at around 6 p.m.: Math is difficult but the rest is easy. I don't watch TV, so I usually read in my bed at around 8:00.
