

Grammar point : les articles

Les articles a / an / Ø

L'article indéfini a / an s'utilise avec des noms dénombrables (que l'on peut compter) au singulier.

- On utilise « a » devant un son voyelle et « an » devant un son consonne.

a boy / a monster an apple / an ear

- Devant un nom au pluriel, on emploie l'article zéro (Ø).

Ø boys / Ø monsters Ø apples / Ø ears

1. Complete with a, an ou Ø

- | | | | |
|----------------|-------------|-------------|----------------------|
| a. ___ mouth | c. ___ hand | e. ___ feet | g. ___ enormous head |
| b. ___ eyebrow | d. ___ foot | f. ___ hair | h. ___ little eye |

Exercice 1: complète les blancs avec a / an / Ø

1. I have got _____ long blond hair.
2. She has got _____ long nose.
3. My sister has _____ elephant.
4. They have _____ blue eyes.
5. There is _____ English teacher in the room.
6. She has got _____ nice dog.

Exercice 2: complète les blancs avec a / an / Ø

1. This is _____ pretty girl.
2. The elephant is _____ big animal.
3. He loves eating _____ pizzas.
4. I have got _____ orange pair of socks.
5. She lives in _____ beautiful house.

Exercice 3 : complète les blancs avec a / an / Ø

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. They have _____ big teeth. | 2. She has _____ small mouth. |
| 3. We have _____ curly hair. | 4. He has _____ long nose. |
| 5. She has _____ enormous head. | 6. You have _____ pointed ears. |