I was named as Goodwill Ambassador for UN Women six months ago.

I realized that fighting for women's rights has too often become synonymous with man hating. This must stop.

I started questioning inequalities between men and women a long time ago.

When I was 8, I worked on a play and I was called bossy because I wanted to direct the plays that we would put on for our parents, and the boys were not.

When at 14, I started to be sexualized by certain elements of the media. When at 15, my girlfriends started dropping out of sports teams because they didn't want to appear muscly. When at 18, my male friends couldn't express their feelings. I decided that I was a feminist and this seemed easy for me.
