

MULTIPLICATION TABLE WITH SEED

Description

A game board is placed on the table. All players receive a chestnut. The first player rolls his chestnut on the game board. When the chestnut is rolled onto the task box, the player has to say the name of the tree seed and the answer to the multiplication action. The more complex the multiplication action, the more points the player gets. The player who scores the most points wins.