

Back to basics

1. Parts of a house

Put the right number next to each word

	garage
	attic bedroom
	Home office/study
	kitchen
	Nursery room
	Laundry room basement
	Bathroom/shower room
	Dining room
	Living room/sitting room

Where do you...? (B1)

Complete each sentence with the correct room from the box above.

- If you want to relax after a long day at work, you can sit on the sofa in the _____ and watch a film.
- Since we don't have much storage space, we keep all our old suitcases and Christmas decorations in the _____.
- My grandmother spends most of her morning in the _____, preparing meals for the whole family.
- Because the baby wakes up several times a night, my sister put a comfortable armchair in the _____.
- Although it's quite small, the _____ is where we usually invite guests for a formal dinner.
- As I often work from home, I've turned the spare room into a _____ where I can concentrate in peace.
- Before leaving for school, children usually get ready in the _____, brushing their teeth and having a quick shower.
- Whenever it rains, we park the car in the _____ instead of leaving it outside.
- Once a week, my mother spends the whole afternoon in the _____, doing the ironing and hanging up the washing.
- After moving into their new flat, they realised the _____ was too damp to be used as an extra bedroom.
- Every night, I go up to my _____ to read a few pages before falling asleep.

3. Now it's your turn!

Using at least four rooms from the list and one relative clause (which/where/that), write a short paragraph (5-6 sentences) describing the house you would love to live in one day.

Example: I would love to live in a house which has a big garden and a bright living room where my friends could come round on weekends...