

Back to basics

1. Types of doors

Read the definitions below and label the doors properly

- A. Pocket doors slide into a wall cavity to save space.
- B. Hinged doors are attached to a frame with hinges.
- C. Security doors are strong and provide extra protection.
- D. Folding doors fold in sections to open.
- E. Glass doors are made of glass and look modern.
- F. Revolving doors rotate around a central axis.
- G. Sliding doors move horizontally on a track.
- H. Automatic doors open automatically with sensors.
- I. Flush doors have a flat surface and simple design.
- J. Barn doors slide on an exposed track outside the wall.
- K. Louvered doors have slats for air and ventilation.
- L. French doors have glass panels and open outward or inward.

