FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Donald Trump

Declared Nov. 15, 2022

Age 78 • Birthplace Queens, NY • Residence Palm Beach, FL • Previous presidential campaigns 2000, 2016, 2020 • Offices held 45th President of the U.S. (2017-2021) • Education University of Pennsylvania (BS)

About the candidate

Former President Trump was the first candidate to declare his intent to run for the GOP nomination in 2024. He also became the first former president to face any kind of criminal charges after being indicted by a Manhattan grand jury in a case related to a payoff to a porn star. He now faces federal criminal charges, too, related to his alleged mishandling of classified documents that were discovered at his Mar-a-Lago resort. (Trump has denied wrongdoing in both cases.)

Trump, who was impeached twice, continues to falsely claim that he won the 2020 election and has said that he intends to repeal many of the Biden administration's initiatives. Early polls indicate that nearly two-thirds of Republican primary voters would vote for Donald Trump. The former president has not said if he would support the nominee if another candidate wins the nomination, saying, "It would have to depend on who the nominee was."

Campaign positions

- Support legislation that represents a "record investment" in police \(source\)
- Pardon "a large portion" of the people convicted of federal offenses for their participation in the Jan. 6, 2021, attack on the U.S. Capitol. \(source\)
- Sign an executive order instructing federal agencies to "cease all programs that promote the concept of sex and gender transition at any age"; punish doctors who provide gender-affirming care to minors. \(source; source\)
- "Get something done" on abortion; has declined to specify how many weeks into a pregnancy he would support a ban; has said a federal ban would need to include exceptions for rape, incest and life of the mother. \(source; source\)
