1542

By Talan Grigg

Zaragoza is an authentic Spanish city, with strong Aragonese traditions, enormous amounts of serrano ham, and ice cold Ambar in every bar you visit.

- It is home to one of the oldest and most respected universities in Spain, founded in 1542.
- Las Fiestas del Pilar are incredible - one of Spain's most culturally important festivals.
- Stunning Roman and Mudejar architecture.

Located between Madrid and Barcelona, and just a train ride away from the Pyrenees.
