James Sudds

SYA 25-26

University of North Carolina at Greensboro

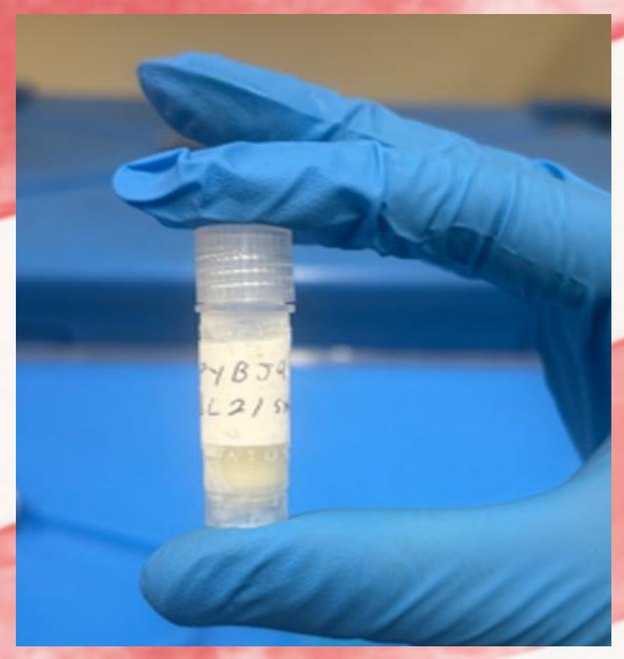

Exchange summary:

- 3rd year spent in Greensboro - an average USA city in Central North Carolina.
- UNCG is a public research University with a diverse student community and a strong emphasis of undergraduate research
- Experienced a vastly different academic system with flexible choices of classes and constant examinations
- Living in a challenging USA city, with poor transportation and a contrasting campus
- Met many amazing people and made a 7-a-side football team - Tower Village FC

Classes and Research:

- Took Inorganic chemistry (I and II), Biochemistry (I and II), Quantitative / Instrumental analysis (Lab too), Medicinal Chemistry - averaged a GPA both semesters of 3.75+
- Research project looking at extracting and purifying an Uncharacterised protein originating from Anthrax with a Captain in the US military undertaking his PhD in Biochemistry

PYbjQ protein with E.coli

Travel:

- Washington DC
- Miami, Florida
- Denver, Colorado
- Charleston, South Carolina
- Charlotte, North Carolina
- Virginia
- Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

- Chicago, Illinois

