

Writing skills - 1

Write a letter to your American penfriend about these points:

- describe what you are doing now that it is summer time

- talk about a place where you are going to spend some days before school starts

- invite your friend to visit you

Remember to use the correct beginning and closing sentences

Use paragraphs