Dear Lena,

Thank you very much for your reply, your interest, and your availability – I truly appreciate it! Indeed, I am looking for associative partners in the cities of the CIVIS network, such as Salzburg.

The idea would be to connect the project Comme Toi with local associations involved in topics such as human rights, refugee support, LGBTQIA+ rights, feminist movements, etc. The slogan of the project is “Our difference is our power.” It reflects the spirit of Comme Toi – a space where diversity becomes strength, and where student voices can be seen, heard, and valued across borders.

Being a partner in the project would not require heavy or financial commitments. The main objectives would be:

1. Identifying students concerned with or engaged in these topics to participate in the exhibition or the multilingual booklet;
2. Possibly supporting or coordinating a small local workshop (online or in-person, depending on possibilities);
3. And eventually hosting or supporting the traveling exhibition when it visits the CIVIS universities.

The exhibition will be funded by the CIVIS program if the project is selected, which guarantees its implementation. I fully understand that the deadline is very close, but even a simple intention to support or a quick connection with an interested organization would be extremely valuable to strengthen my application.

Thank you again for your help and your enthusiasm! I remain at your disposal to send you more details or to discuss this quickly if needed.

Best regards,
Macilon dos Santos

Dear Macilon dos Santos,

I am CIVIS Ambassador for the University of Salzburg.

Do I understand correctly that you are looking for possible organisations for your project or what is it exactly you are looking for? :)

Maybe you could tell me what it would entail being a partner/what would have to be done,...?

I could reach out to some organisations here in Salzburg and ask if anyone would be interested. I am just not sure if you would get an answer before the deadline

Thanks for your message, generally I think that your idea sounds really great!
