Subject: [student] 📢 Last Call – “Our difference is our power.” (CIVIS 2025 Project)

Dear all,

🕒 The CIVIS Student Project Call is coming to an end on April 30, 2025.
I'm still looking for one or two last associative partners to join Comme Toi:
“Our difference is our power.”

👉 No heavy commitment – simply the willingness to connect and contribute to a student initiative focused on human rights, diversity, and resilience.

🚀 Even a simple expression of interest or a quick contact would be precious to help strengthen the application.

Thank you so much for your time and support!

Best regards,

Dear all,

The CIVIS Student Project Call is nearing its end, with the deadline set for April 30, 2025. Although it is still possible to submit the project, I have not yet received any feedback. I am therefore reaching out once again, wondering whether my previous message reached you. This project would have been a great opportunity to give refugee students visibility and work together with the guarantee of a successful outcome, thanks to the secure funding of the travelling exhibition.

In any case, I fully understand that everyone has their own priorities and time constraints. However, in a spirit of continuous improvement, I would be very grateful if you could share your impressions with me. Even a brief response would be extremely valuable to help me adjust and improve my proposal for the future.
