I think my dad is Dracula

Title

I think my dad is Dracula.
I know that sounds insane,
but listen for a moment and allow me to explain.

verse

We don't live in a castle,
and we never sleep in caves.
But, still, there's something weird
about the way my dad behaves.

stanza → quatrain (4 lines)

I never see him go out in the daytime when it's light.
He sleeps all day till evening,
then he leaves the house at night.

He comes home in the morning saying, "Man, I'm really dead!"
He kisses us goodnight, and then by sunrise he's in bed.

My mom heard my suspicion
and she said, "You're not too swift.
Your father's not a vampire.
He just works the graveyard shift."

A poem by Kenn Nesbitt, 2009

poet / author

Agreeing

- Definitely! Absolutely!
- That's true. That's right. That's convincing.
- I agree with you. I totally agree.
- I share your point of view.
- I think so too.
- I see what you mean.
- You're quite right / absolutely right.

Disagreeing

- Not necessarily! Not at all!
- That's not always true.
- I don't think so.
- I'm not sure about that...
- I disagree / I completely disagree...
- You could say that, however...
- That's one way of looking at it, yet...
