

Banff National Park

Banff National Park is one of the biggest national parks in Canada. It is also one of the oldest parks, as it was built in 1885.

The park will take your breath away, because it is so beautiful and mind-blowing. However, beware, it is a dangerous place, given that there are wild animals like black bears, grizzly bears, mooses, wolfs... Furthermore, it is also dangerous because of its landscape, frequent avalanches and extreme temperatures that drop to minus 30° celsius.

Lacrosse

Lacrosse is a Canadian sport. In Canada, the national sport is lacrosse and hockey. Hockey is a winter sport contrary to lacrosse, because it's more of a summer sport. Native Canadians invented lacrosse to honor the Great Spirit given that for them he is a kind of god. Lacrosse has two other names: Baggataway and Tewaarathon. Lacrosse was the most famous sport in Canada. But, it isn't anymore. Furthermore, lacrosse was first played by Canadian indigenous people.

Vocabulary

to take (someone's) breath away = couper le souffle (pour parler de quelque chose d'époustouflant)

mind-blowing = époustouflant, hallucinant

wild = sauvage

wildlife = vie sauvage, faune et flore

landscape = scenery = paysage

to honor = honorer