Teenagers and work

American teenagers often have a part time job and /or a summer job.

The Fair Labor Standards Act (U.S. Department of Labor) sets the minimum age for employment at 14 (except if teenagers are employed by their parents and if they deliver newspapers, perform in radio, television, movies, or if they babysit or perform other part-time jobs around their home). It also limits the number of hours worked by minors under the age of 16.
