

2 Observe and listen

1 Identify the objects on the image of the statue.

- ... Chainmail armour    ... Blue sky
... Helmet    ... Horse
... Flag    ... Spear

2 This statue represents William the Conqueror in battle. Answer these questions about William.

- a) His victory in England was named "The Norman Conquest" because...
 he beat King Norman at Hastings.  he was from Normandy.
- b) After the Conquest, William took the throne of England. What does "throne" mean?
 The King's helmet.  The King's chair.

3 Now, listen to the audio. Circle the words you hear that are associated with family.

ex-girlfriend    sister    wife    mother    parents grandfather    brother    brother-in-law    daughter    child

4 Listen to the audio again. Use the words you circled to correct the following text.

- a) William the Conqueror was the Robert I's grandchild. → .....
- b) King Edward's father was William's grandmother's boyfriend.
→ ..... / ..... / .....
- c) Harold Godwin was Edward's father-in-law. → .....

Traduction des consignes

1° Identify the objects on the image of the statue.

Identifie les objets sur l'image représentant la statue.

2° This statue represents William the Conqueror in battle. Answer these questions about William.

Cette statue représente Guillaume le Conquérant en pleine bataille. Réponds aux questions suivantes à propos de Guillaume.

His victory in England was named "the Norman Conquest" because...

Sa victoire en Angleterre fut nommée « the Norman Conquest » parce que...

he beat King Norman at Hastings / he was from Normandy.

il a battu le roi Norman à Hastings / il venait de Normandie.

After the conquest, William took the throne of England. What does "throne" mean?

Après la conquête, Guillaume s'est emparé ..... d'Angleterre. Que veut dire "throne"?

the King's helmet / the King's chair

le casque du roi / la chaise du roi.

3° Now listen to the audio. Circle the words you hear that are associated with family.

Maintenant écoute l'enregistrement audio. Entoure les mots que tu entends qui sont associés à la famille.

4° Listen to the audio again. Use the words you circled to correct the following text.

Réécoute l'enregistrement audio. Utilise les mots que tu as entourés pour corriger le texte suivant.

---