

Write your resume

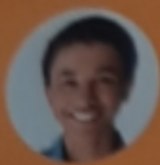

Doc 1

- Watch the video and identify what qualities and skills the hosts expect from WWOOFers.
- Context Observe how the word "willing" is formed and identify the noun it comes from. Explain what the word means.
- Explain why the hosts are willing to hire WWOOFers.

What it takes to be a WWOOFer

Doc 2

DAN SMITH

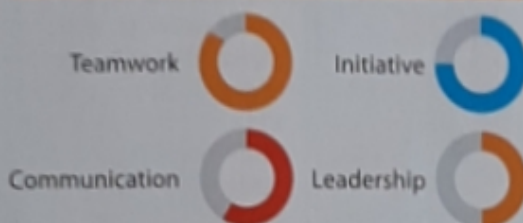

Student

I am a motivated 18-year-old student looking for volunteering experience on an organic farm

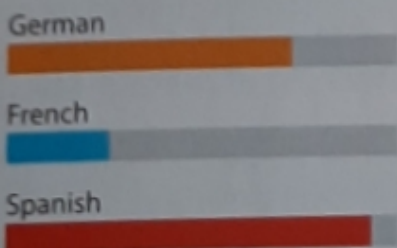

Contact

- 853 Frey Road, New York, NY
- 212 563 4665
- dan.smith@gmail.com
- www.dansmith.com

Skills

Languages

Work experience

- 2017 - 2019 Pet sitter (New York)
 - Scheduling and attending¹ visits
 - Walking and feeding dogs
- 2016 Work placement - Pet Medical Center (NY)
 - Assisting with nail trims² and calming pets
 - Cleaning the facility³ to meet health standards
 - Maintaining⁴ the daily laundry

Hobbies and interests

- Sports swimming (3 years), mountain biking
- Various reading, guitar (5 years)

Education

- 2016-2019 East Bridge High School
 - Major subjects: sciences and languages
 - Class representative for 3 years
 - Tutoring classmates

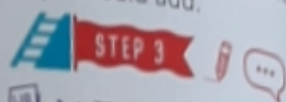

Software

Office, Excel, Word, PP

Online Info

- Look at the resume and select information about the applicant (country, situation, experience, skills).
- After reading his resume, do you think Dan Smith would be a good WWOOFer or not? Why?
- List the categories you found in this resume. Think of other categories you could add.

→ p. 72

Write your own resume. Practise using information from your resume to show your future hosts that your profile corresponds to what they are looking for.

WORDS

- ♦ easy-going
- ♦ hardworking
- ♦ respectful
- ♦ self-willed /self-wild/
- ♦ be good at + V-ing
- ♦ be proficient in + V-ing
- ♦ excel in + V-ing

- be present at
- manure
- place, building
- keep in good condition