

Buying some food at the grocery

- Hello? Is there anyone here?
- Good evening young gentleman, and welcome to my beautiful grocery, the “British-Shop”! What can I do for you?
- Well, I would like to make a recipe but I don’t know the ingredients I need...
- Tell me the name of your mysterious recipe!
- I would like to make a Toad in the Hole. Do you know how I can make it?
- Yes, I do, it’s very easy! Let me think... Oh yes! First, you need flour, salt and pepper. Then you need eggs, milk, oil...
- Wait, wait! How much ingredients do I need?
- You’re right, I’m sorry. You need three eggs, one bottle of milk and eight sausages.
- Thank you... Let me write it on my phone...
- Would you like something else, young man?
- No, that will be all! How much do all those ingredients cost?
- Let me see... A bag of flour, salt, pepper, a box of eggs, a bottle of milk and eight sausages... They cost £12 and 55 pens.
- This is all I have.
- Thank you very much, enjoy your Toad in the Hole!
- Goodbye!

Consignes

1. Repère tous les ingrédients nécessaires à la réalisation de la recette.
2. Quel est le nom de cette recette ?
3. Qu’est-ce que le symbole « £ » signifie ?
4. Traduis les expressions et les mots soulignés en gras, sans regarder sur internet !

Good luck!