

Lesson 4: what an amazing city!

Hi there guys! What's up?

I'm in New York and this city is just so amazing! I am standing in Times Square and I am looking around. This place is so busy! Hang on, I see someone who is signing autographs! OMG it's Chris Pratt!

Now I'm heading towards the Subway, it's faster than walking. I am going to Broadway, I'm going to buy a ticket for a movie. I want to see Jurassic Park.

I'm a bit hungry now, I am standing in the queue outside the oldest bagel shop in New York. This is so crazy! People are queuing to eat a bagel!

Before I leave you, I am heading toward the ferry terminal. I am going to the Statue of Liberty. Look at it, over there! What a stunning view!

Bye for now!

A. Read the script of the audio and answer the questions.

1. Find this vocabulary in the text.

- |                             |                            |
|-----------------------------|----------------------------|
| a) regarder autour de soi : | b) se tenir quelque part : |
| c) bondé/animé :            | d) Affamé :                |
| e) Faire la queue :         |                            |
| f) Se diriger vers :        | g) la vue :                |
|                             | h) maintenant :            |

2. How does she find NYC? Find positive adjectives in the text and wordcloud.

2. Find 4 sentences she uses to express her feelings about NYC.

Ex: This city is just so amazing!

-
-

B. Les phrases exclamatives.

Pour exprimer la surprise, le choc ou une émotion forte, on utilise des phrases exclamatives, qui se terminent toujours par un            d'           .

EXEMPLES DE STRUCTURES EXCLAMATIVES
ON INSISTE SUR UN ADJECTIF		ON INSISTE SUR UN NOM (+ sa qualité)
It was so amazing!	How impressive she is!	What an incredible actor!	It's such a good movie!
She is really talented!	How fabulous !	What a surprise !
It is totally worth it!

Transforme les phrases suivantes en phrases exclamatives :

_____ incredible ! NYC is _____ a fabulous city ! _____ a tall building ! Bagels are _____ delicious!