

100 = one hundred

1,000 = one thousand

The Empire State Building is one thousand four hundred and fifty-four feet tall (1,454 ft).

- Read the quick facts and write the numbers. Then match them with the correct information about New York City.

Example: Five: 5 > Number of boroughs

- |                                       |                        |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------|
| a. Two hundred and twenty-eight:..... | 1. Number of cabs      |
| b. Twelve: .....                      | 2. Number of languages |
| c. Eight point five:.....             | 3. Number of streets   |
| d. Thirteen thousand:.....            | 4. Number of avenues   |
| e. Two hundred: .....                 | 5. Million inhabitants |