

1. BROADEN YOUR VOCABULARY : ESCAPE

DEFINITIONS OF ESCAPE

1) to get free from a dangerous or confining situation

Pick your favorite words :

Synonyms	break out (of), clear out, flee, fly, get out, run away, run off
Words Related to	avoid, elude, evade, lose, depart, elope, exit, go, leave, move, pull out, quit, sally (forth), shove (off), take off, walk out disentangle, extricate emancipate, enfranchise, free, liberate, redeem, release, rescue, unbind, uncage, unchain spring,
Near Antonyms	abide, dwell, hang around, linger, remain, stay, stick around, come back, return
Antonyms	Arrival coming entrance stay staying capture
Phrases / expressions	run for one's life : To attempt to escape an extremely bad situation break out : prison escape bust out : to escape (from), break out chickens coming home to roost : people visited upon someone who originally had appeared to escape them. A Close Shave : To escape a dangerous situation very closely or to avoid some errors with a slight margin do a bunk To escape or flee under incriminating circumstances. a bullet To have a narrow escape; to avoid injury or disaster. duck out To move or act so as to achieve avoidance, escape, or evasion. do a bunk To escape or flee under incriminating circumstances. Dodge a bullet : To have a narrow escape; to avoid injury or disaster. duck out : To move or act so as to achieve avoidance, escape, or evasion.

	make a break for it : To attempt to escape; to flee; to run away. make a run for it : To attempt to escape; to flee; to run away. play possum : To feign death; to remain quiet and still to escape attention or remain undetected; to lay low. spring out : To break out; to escape under lock and key : Imprisoned with little or no chance of escape. slip through the cracks : To escape notice or lack sufficient attention.
Quotes	“Books don't offer real escape, but they can stop a mind scratching itself raw.” — David Mitchell “How did I escape? With difficulty. How did I plan this moment? With pleasure.” — Alexandre Dumas, The Count of Monte Cristo “It isn't running away they're afraid of. We wouldn't get far. It's those other escapes, the ones you can open in yourself, given a cutting edge.” — Margaret Atwood, The Handmaid's Tale “A good traveller is one who knows how to travel with the mind.” — Michael Bassey Johnson