

Projet de lecture suivie: Brooklyn, Colm Tòibín

The book is divided into 4 parts.

For each part, you will take part in a reading circle with a certain role then you will discuss the themes as given by your teacher.

You will have 5 minutes for each theme.

You will have a written or oral exercise for each part.

Be sure you have read the book before hand in order to take part of the exercise each time.

After the reading and explanation, you will provide your teacher a memory box with 4 items minimum for each part and a written explanation of each items.

Instruction for your final Task:

- 1- Your memory box will contain 4 items for each part
- 2- Each items is a reminder of what happened to Eilis.
- 3- Your explanations will be detailed in a paper you will leave at the bottom of the box but each item will need to have an identification tab with the part it is linked to.
- 4- Your items may be in any shape: paperclip, letter, photo, object...
- 5- You will introduce us to someone else's box at the end of the reading.
