Characters and plot

- a) Ethan refuses to abandon and continues the pursuit, accompanied by Martin and Brad. Ethan discovers that Lucy has been killed. Enraged, Brad launches a suicide attack on the Comanche camp.
- b) Back home, Laurie is to marry Charlie McCorry instead of Martin. They fight. Reverend Captain Clayton receives a new report by the Yankee Cavalry about Scar's location.
- c) Lars Jorgensen's cattle has been stolen by the Comanche. Reverend Captain Clayton launches a search party. However, this was actually a trap to lure the Texas Rangers away.
- d) They finally find Chief Scar and Debbie, who has been his wife for 5 years and refuses to go home with them. Ethan believes that Debbie is now a Comanche, and he considers killing her. Martin defends Debbie.
- e) The pursuit continues for a few years. Ethan and Martin meet Native-American tribes, visit a military fort, and finally ride to New Mexico for fresh information about Scar's tribe.
- f) Texas, 1868. Ethan Edwards returns after an eight-year absence. He has fought during the Civil War (1861-65) and the Mexican Revolutionary War (1861-67).
- g) Winter brings Ethan and Martin home, at the Jorgensen's. A letter sent by a trader, Futterman, gives new directions. Unfortunately, it is a trap to steal their possessions. Ethan kills Futterman and his men.
- h) Ethan, Martin, the Rangers and the Cavalry attack Scar's camp by surprise. Debbie is saved and accepts to go home. The search is over. Ethan leaves alone.
- i) After a brief funeral, Ethan and the Rangers set out in pursuit. They finally meet them, but the attack is a failure, and they cannot free the hostages.
- j) The unprotected Edwards farm is attacked at night and the family is slaughtered, except for Lucy and Debbie who are abducted by the Comanche.
