

PART 3 :

“He did not seem Irish to her; he was too clean -cut and friendly and open in his gaze”

(p128)

“I told you that my mom, as you call her, is in Ireland”

(p133)

“We don't like Irish”

(p148)