Today it's the 14 February. It's Valentine's Day. I'm very stressed. I don't know what will happen today. It's the first time I meet a woman. Milton was arrested. Now, I'm lonely and I need company.

At 10 am, Charity is here. She is so beautiful. I never seen a women like this. She is perfect for me. She is like me. Charity is a robot like me. She has a mysterious voice, but sweet voice also. Milton was too angry against me so I continued to find the perfect love but for me. When, I saw her, I was literally in love of her.

Fortunately, she was also in love of me. One years later. I learnt that Milton was free. The next day, I received a letter written by Milton saying that he wants to kill me because he was thinking that it was my foul. But in fact, Charity called the police and saved me. I was walking in the street when I saw Milton. I was scared. He approached me. Charity take a knife and tried to protect me. But Milton killed Charity. I was so angry and sad. I wanted to avenge the Charity's death but Milton was my master, he programmed me so, I wasn't able to avenge Charity. Now I'm finding the perfect love for Milton. When I see Milton, I remembered Charity, all she did for me but mostly the fact that I didn't avenge Charity.
