

Maddening Madness
fiction and reality: There is no great genius without some touch of Madness - Aristotle
	Is madness just a matter of fiction or reality made genius?
At the end of the Unit, I will	- know more about the treatment of mad people - have read two short stories and seen a movie
What vocabulary will I need ?	love madness giving my opinion
What grammatical structure will I need ?	past used to + V / used to + V-ing expressing my opinion
What documents will be used ?	1- Madness, a health issue The Yellow wall paper 2- Madness, a societal issue 2a- The kiss, Edward Klint 2b- Madness Gif 2c- Once Upon a time, Nadine Gardimer 2d- Movie Trailer, Black Swan movie by Darren Aronofsky, 2011 3- Madness, A God Complex - Frankenstein, Mary Sheller, chapter 1 4- Madness Illustrated Shutter Island,
What will I learn about ?	The consequences of men on their environment how one can be driven to madness the different layers of madness
Final Task	You will illustrate the concept of madness through a picture or a quote and you will make a story out of it.

Instructions for your Final Task:

- 1- you need to bring a picture on D-day
- 2- you will have an hour full to write a story based on it
- 3- You are not entitled to any notes on D-Day
- 4- You will know more about it on D-day