The Setting: An ancient, ruined-looking castle with sharp towers (spires) and massive stone walls.

The Lighting: It is night-time. The only light comes from a pale full moon and a few mysterious glowing windows.

The Weather: The sky is filled with stormy clouds. There is a thick mist (or fog) creeping through the trees, making the place look eerie and supernatural.

The Omens: We can see black birds (crows or bats) flying in the sky a sign that something terrible will happen).

The Lighting: The wet cobblestone streets are illuminated by gas lamps. This shows the control of man over daylight.

The Transport: We can see several horse-drawn carriages and many pedestrians. It is a world of motion and technology.

The Setting: Multi-story brick building with signs in period typography. This represents commerce and a structured society.

The Smoke/Steam: Rising from the distance, it hints at steam trains or factories, the engine of the modern era.

Anxiety: The Victorian people were proud of their progress, but also anxious about the changes it brought.
