● ● ● What is a superlative adjective?

Definition

★ A superlative adjective is a form of an adjective used to compare three or more things, showing which one has the highest degree of a particular quality. In English, superlative adjectives are typically formed by adding the suffix "-est" to the base form of the adjective or by using the word "most" before the adjective.

● ● ● Examples

Suffix -est

- She is the tallest person in the classroom.
