

GREEK MYTHOLOGY CREATURES

DOMAINE 1 :
Comprendre, s'exprimer en
utilisant une langue étrangère.

Écouter et comprendre
Isoler des informations très simples dans un message. A1

The Sphinx had the _____ of a _____, the head of a _____, and the wings of an _____. The Sphinx terrorized the city of Thebes, _____ all those who could not solve its riddle. Finally, a young man named _____ solved the Sphinxes riddle and the city was saved.

The chimera was a _____ monster that was a combination of many animals including a _____, lion, and snake. It was an _____ of Typhon. The Chimera was _____ throughout Greek _____ as it could breathe _____.

The Cerberus was a giant three-headed _____ that guarded the _____ of the _____. Cerberus was the offspring of the feared _____ Typhon. Hercules had to _____ Cerberus as one of his Twelve _____.

Charybdis was a sea monster that took the _____ of a giant _____. Any _____ that came near Charybdis were pulled down to the _____ of the sea. Ships that _____ through the Strait of _____ had to either pass by Charybdis or face the seas monster Scylla.

The Centaurs were half-man half-horse _____. Their _____ half was _____, while their lower half had four legs like a _____. In general, centaurs were loud and vulgar. However, one centaur named Chiron was _____ and skilled in training. He trained many of the Greek heroes including _____ and Jason of the Argonauts.

The griffin was a _____ of a lion and an eagle. It had the _____ of a lion and the head, _____, and talons of an _____. Griffins were said to _____ in northern Greece where they guarded a huge _____.

The Minotaur had the head of _____ and the body of a _____. The Minotaur came from the _____ of Crete. He lived underground in a maze called the _____. Each year _____ boys and seven girls were locked into the Labyrinth to be _____ by the Minotaur.

Pegasus was a beautiful white _____ that could _____. Pegasus was the horse of _____ and the offspring of the _____ monster _____. Pegasus _____ the hero Bellerophon to kill the chimera.