

Politics

ACROSS

- 5 The more important of the two groups of politicians who make laws in some countries such as the US, Australia, and France.
- 6 Someone who has done something wrong.
- 7 A person who disagrees with something and speaks against it or tries to change it.
- 10 A person who is competing to get a job or elected position.
- 13 A member of a government or law-making organization.
- 14 To speak seriously about something, especially in a law court, or to give or provide proof.

DOWN

- 1 An examination of opinions, behaviour, etc., made by asking people questions.
- 2 An argument or disagreement, especially an official one between, for example, workers and employers or two countries with a common border.
- 3 A person in control of a group, country, or situation.
- 4 A person who believes in democracy.
- 8 The person who has the highest political position in a country that is a republic and who, in some of these countries, is the leader of the government.
- 9 A part of an organization such as a school, business, or government that deals with a particular area of study or work.
- 11 To choose someone officially for a job or responsibility.
- 12 An occasion when you win a game, competition, election, war, etc. or the fact that you have won.
- 14 The hearing of statements and showing of objects, etc. in a law court to judge if a person is guilty of a crime or to decide a case or a legal matter.