

The Cotton club

The Cotton Club in 1920 in Harlem. The first owner of the Cotton Club Jack Johnson, an African-American boxing champion. Owney Madden the club in 1923. The Cotton Club 700 seats. Rich and white people to the Cotton Club. Customers alcohol and Chinese and American food. Jazz musicians such as Duke Ellington and Cab Calloway music in the club. Singers and dancers also in the club.

The Cotton club

The Cotton Club in 1920 in Harlem. The first owner of the Cotton Club Jack Johnson, an African-American boxing champion. Owney Madden the club in 1923. The Cotton Club 700 seats. Rich and white people to the Cotton Club. Customers alcohol and Chinese and American food. Jazz musicians such as Duke Ellington and Cab Calloway music in the club. Singers and dancers also in the club.

The Cotton club

The Cotton Club in 1920 in Harlem. The first owner of the Cotton Club Jack Johnson, an African-American boxing champion. Owney Madden the club in 1923. The Cotton Club 700 seats. Rich and white people to the Cotton Club. Customers alcohol and Chinese and American food. Jazz musicians such as Duke Ellington and Cab Calloway music in the club. Singers and dancers also in the club.