Saint Patrick's Day is a popular holiday celebrated on the seventeenth of March. The holiday honours Saint Patrick, the man who brought Christianity to Ireland and died on the seventeenth of March. Saint Patrick's Day is a national holiday in Ireland. But people in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, and other countries celebrate the holiday, too.

Irish people wear green clothes to celebrate Saint Patrick's Day. Green and shamrocks are symbols of Ireland. Many cities with big Irish populations have huge public celebrations. Boston celebrated its first Saint Patrick's Day in 1737. New York City celebrates Saint Patrick's day with a parade. Chicago dyes its river (the Hudson river) green for Saint Patrick's Day.
