SYNOPSIS

A new home?

It is the year 2170. Life on Earth is threatened. NASA has sent a great number of ships out into space to look for a new home. Yesterday's dreams of space life have now become an absolute necessity. One crew of astronauts have just started reporting to NASA about their discovery: Have they found the right planet?

Check list:

- 1) I have written the title of the series: The Colony.
- 2) I have written a dialogue between NASA and a crew of astronauts (with questions and answers).
- 3) I have used the present perfect and the preterite with the right adverbs.
- 4) I have used the vocabulary seen in class (the oxygenator/ the rover/ a settlement...)
- 5) I have described the new planet and what has been discovered.
- 6) I have described the difficulties the astronauts have encountered.
- 7) I have written stage directions.
- 8) I have used the right quotation marks "...".
- 9) I have concluded whether they have found the right planet to establish a colony or not.
