

BECOME AN EXPERT

COMPLETE THE DIALOGUE WITH MUST, MAY, MIGHT OR CAN'T :

HOLMES: So, I can see the victim has muddy boots.

WATSON: He _____ be a farmer, Holmes.

HOLMES: He _____ be a farmer, his hands are too clean.

WATSON: He _____ be an architect. That's a possibility.

HOLMES: He _____ be an architect, he doesn't have a pencil and paper. Also, he is wearing a uniform. Architects don't wear uniforms.

WATSON: I know! He _____ be a village postman. He has a hat and a large bag for letters.

HOLMES: Indeed Watson! I think you are right.

BECOME AN EXPERT

COMPLETE THE DIALOGUE WITH MUST, MAY, MIGHT OR CAN'T :

HOLMES: So, I can see the victim has muddy boots.

WATSON: He _____ be a farmer, Holmes.

HOLMES: He _____ be a farmer, his hands are too clean.

WATSON: He _____ be an architect. That's a possibility.

HOLMES: He _____ be an architect, he doesn't have a pencil and paper. Also, he is wearing a uniform. Architects don't wear uniforms.

WATSON: I know! He _____ be a village postman. He has a hat and a large bag for letters.

HOLMES: Indeed Watson! I think you are right.

HOMEWORK

COMPLETE WITH MIGHT, MAY, MUST OR CAN'T.

- a. The robber be the chef or the waiter, they both have motives.
- b. He be the killer: he has blood on his hands.
- c. She be the murderer; she was on holiday when it happened.
- d. The man be a thief, he looks suspicious.
- e. I was with him in the kitchen when the jewel was stolen. He be the thief.
- f. She has read all the Sherlock Holmes books. She love detective stories.
- g. I didn't really see her so she be the culprit but I'm not sure.
- h. Mrs Smith has a bag with the name Mrs Hill on it. It be her bag.
- i. He has a motive and no alibi so it be him.

HOMEWORK

COMPLETE WITH MIGHT, MAY, MUST OR CAN'T.

- a. The robber be the chef or the waiter, they both have motives.
- b. He be the killer: he has blood on his hands.
- c. She be the murderer; she was on holiday when it happened.
- d. The man be a thief, he looks suspicious.
- e. I was with him in the kitchen when the jewel was stolen. He be the thief.
- f. She has read all the Sherlock Holmes books. She love detective stories.
- g. I didn't really see her so she be the culprit but I'm not sure.
- h. Mrs Smith has a bag with the name Mrs Hill on it. It be her bag.
- i. He has a motive and no alibi so it be him.