

Mish Mash: The scripts

The scene takes place in a room. In the middle, there is a round table. Next to the table, a man is wearing a suit and he is reading the newspaper. On the right, the woman is wearing a red dress and she is playing the piano. She looks bored.

The scene takes place in an automat. In the middle, a woman is drinking tea or maybe coffee at a table. She is wearing a hat, her lipstick and her dress are both red. Maybe she is waiting for someone. In the corner, there is a radiator. At the top, we can see the reflection of ceiling lights.

The scene takes place in an office. We can see a door on the left, a window on the right and also a typewriter in the bottom left-hand corner. There are two people. A woman is standing, she is looking at the man who is working. She is wearing a blue dress and he is wearing a suit. He is reading a paper.

The scene takes place in a house or in an apartment. The sun is shining on the woman in the middle. She is sitting on a bed, looking outside. She is wearing a pink dress. She is lost in thought, meditative. In addition, she is looking to the right, to the outside.

The scene takes place in a house or in an apartment. On the left, there is a dressing table with a bottle on it. In the middle, a woman is sitting on a chair. She has long hair and she is wearing a white dress. She is sewing, maybe fixing some clothes. On the right, we can see the blue sky through the window.