

Sam is smart, eccentric, funny, cool, creative, empathetic and curious, even though he has a hard time expressing emotions and he often appears to be cold as chilly ice all of the time. He can also be awkward and blatantly honest, due to his autism. He loves and cares about his family and friends and he wants to be very independent.

Elsa is an action-oriented, fiercely protective yet often overbearing mother with strong organizational and planning skills. She is always seamlessly managing the household.

Casey is a feisty, strong-willed, protective, brave young girl, as well as kind, caring, independent, reasonable and clever. She often teases or picks on her brother in a sisterly way, but she always protects him due to him being autistic. She often makes fun of Elsa, her mother, and always has snarky comments and shows her bad attitude towards her mother. She's confident and she's never afraid to stand up for herself.
