

Oral comprehension Correction

Je comprends les grandes lignes d'un message oral	D	A	C	E
Je suis capable de repérer les détails dans un message oral	D	A	C	E

a. The journalist wants to know more about... (circle) politeness.                      britishness.                      happiness.

b. True or false? Justify with some key words from the audio.

British people have a good sense of humour.                      True                      False
 Definitely, we are keen on having a laugh

They are never on time.                      True                      False
 We are more punctual than other people.

They just have tea for breakfast.                      True                      False
 British people always have a kettle on ready to get you a nice cuppa at any time of the day / never forget that tradition.

British people often accept everything.                      True                      False
 Accept queueing, unpredictable weather, we accept it being polite

British people are not patriotic.                      True                      False

c. What do British people accept?

• queueing / unpredictable weather /

d. You'll hear information about a typical British food. Tick the right options.

Name:                       fish and chips                       roast beef                       baked beans

Price:                       very expensive                       not expensive

Where you can have it:                       a restaurant                       a hotel                       a pub

Age to go there with an adult:                       13                       14                       15

e. What do you hear about the Union Jack in comparison with other flags?

• we are crazy about our flag, no other flag is as good as the Union Jack. it's more creative, more original, funnier than any other one.