

How stereotypically British are you?

1

How much tea do you drink?

- A I don't drink tea
- B I'll have a cup now and again (de temps en temps)
- C I have at least one cup a day (au moins)
- D I have multiple cups a day

2

HI, HOW ARE YOU

What's your typical response to How are you today?'

- A I'm fantastic, how are you doing?
- B I'm good thanks.
- C Not too bad, thanks.
- D Well I didn't die in my sleep, so there's that. (sommeil)

Which is your favourite out of these meals?

- A Sushi
- B Pizza
- C Curry
- D Roast dinner¹

3

5

When was the last time you had a conversation about the weather?

- A I don't really talk about the weather.
- B probably not for a while
- C In the last few days
- D Literally just now

Passé devant toi

What do you do if someone cuts ahead of you in a queue?

- A immediately tell them to get to the back of the line (à l'arrière)
- B Tut² loudly and shake your head
- C Mutter under your breath³
- D Seethe⁴ quietly but don't do anything

4

Pas depuis longtemps

How good are your teeth?

- A Perfect
- B Pretty good
- C Not the best
- D Really bad

6

How do you feel about the Royal Family?

- A Monarchy [...] should be abolished
- B It's a bit silly but what can you do?
- C They're good ambassadors for the country
- D sing God save the Queen loudly

Devrait être abolie (arrêtée)

Un peu stupide

VOCABULARY

¹ Typical British Sunday meal

² Faire PFFFFF

³ marmonner dans sa barbe

⁴ bouillir intérieurement