

Sequence 5: "What a surprising country!" Niveau 6e WORKSHEET LESSON 1

1. Complete the document:

shirt

Ghillie Brogue Shoes

sporrán

Prince Charlie jacket and vest

kilt

2. Written comprehension:

Read the text and answer the questions:

Scottish facts

| | | | |
|---------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Flag |  | Biggest city |  |
| Capital |  | Symbol |  |
| Motto | "Nemo me impuno lacessit", which means: « Nul ne me provoque impunément. » | | |

Many American people have Scottish roots. In order to honour these origins, a special day is celebrated in the USA on April 6th: Tartan Day. In New York city there is even a Tartan Week!

On Tartan Day, Scottish people are allowed to wear a kilt to go to work. Many famous actors participate and have made wearing a kilt become fashionable. Here are a few names you might know: Vin Diesel, James McAvoy or Ewan McGregor.

Family names that start with Mac or Mc are typically Scottish. Do you know any?

- Find the name of the celebration of Scottish origins in the USA.

- Find the date of this celebration.

-
-
- What can people do on that day?

-
-
- Find something special about Scottish family names.
-
-

3. Culture point:

What is a Tartan?

At home, do the interactive activity to check what you remember:

