

L'EXPRESSION DES CONSEILS

1. Observe et déduis :

Recopie le terme qui convient en face de chaque phrase :

CONSEIL — CONSEIL APPUYE - CONSEIL

- For your safety you'd better have a password = _____
- She should pay more attention = _____
- They shouldn't invite people they don't know. = _____

2. Repère:

- He d better be careful
- You had better log off now.
- We should spend more time with our family.

Entoure le mot qui suit les expressions soulignées dans les phrases précédentes.

Ce sont des verbes conjugués des bases verbales

Les expressions soulignées sont conjuguées invariables.

Relis les phrases a et b de l'activité 2.

Dans la phrase a 'd est la contraction de would had

3. Récapitule :

- Pour exprimer un _____ on utilise should ou shouldn't + _____
- Pour exprimer un _____ appuyé, on utilise _____ ou _____. 'd est la contraction de _____.

Remarque : On peut utiliser HAD BETTER à la forme négative pour déconseiller :

You'd better not put personal information online.

4. Entraîne-toi:

Complète les phrases avec les expressions ou auxiliaires qui conviennent.

- He _____ be aggressive.
- You _____ reveal your address online. It could be dangerous.
- My sister _____ make sure her mobile is switched off when she is in class.
- They _____ spend less time online.

LET'S PRACTISE AT HOME

1. Remettez les mots dans l'ordre pour conseiller un ami :

a. Them / had / you / answer / better / not !/ /

b. An / should / tell / adult / you / . /

c. Accept / you / should / it / not !/ /

2. Transformez ces ordres en conseils positifs ou négatifs :

a. Block shocking comments.

b. Don't let people have access to your passwords!

c. Don't be curious about people's lives.

d. Tell people you trust!

e. Don't open if you receive fishy emails.

LET'S PRACTISE AT HOME

3. Remettez les mots dans l'ordre pour conseiller un ami :

a. Them / had / you / answer / better / not !/ /

b. An / should / tell / adult / you / . /

c. Accept / you / should / it / not !/ /

4. Transformez ces ordres en conseils positifs ou négatifs :

a. Block shocking comments.

b. Don't let people have access to your passwords!

c. Don't be curious about people's lives.

d. Tell people you trust!

e. Don't open if you receive fishy emails.
