

LET'S READ !

One night I bored, so, at 7:15,
 I went to the movies and climbed in the screen.
 I instantly found I part of a scene
 where aliens landed their flying machine.
 They caught me and took me to meet with their queen.
 Her teeth enormous. Her face all green.
 Her head the shape of a garbanzo bean.
 She said they going to cut out my spleen.
 I never knew alien queens so mean!
 I let out a yell like a crazed wolverine,
 and jumped out the window and got away clean
 by taking command of a spy submarine,
 and sailing away underwater, unseen.
 The audience cheered as I climbed from the screen.
 This film like nothing that they had ever seen.
 I got to ride home in a long limousine.
 My picture appeared on a film magazine that said I now the world's most famous teen.
 I thought this was awesome, and so I keen to do it again. It became my routine.
 And now every evening, at 7:15,
 I go to the movies and climb in the screen.
